University of Wisconsin-Madison
Madison WI 53706

Attention: Office of Human Resources

Please accept this letter as my official application for the position of Head Football Coach at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. I have been successful as a Head Football Coach, Director of Football Operations, Recruiting Coordinator and Defensive Coordinator in various football programs. My experiences in these areas will prove valuable in the scheduling, planning practice, travel, budgeting, and recruiting for the football program. I was instrumental in helping to recruit some outstanding student-athletes at various collegiate programs as a Recruiting Coordinator. Also, I have knowledge of the rules and regulations that govern athletics as it relates to the NCAA.

While working at various universities I have gained administrative skills for dealing with students and student-athletes. I have conducted leadership programs to help students understand leadership and how to be effective leaders. I've promoted academic progress by assembling academic centers as a Head Football Coach and administrator.

I have experience in budgeting for football by using a line item budget approach to help control spending. As an administrator I have also supervised various sports in regard to staying within an established budget.

In conclusion, I will articulate a plan and vision by collaborating with other administrators and staff to conduct a successful program. I can interact with boosters and other constituents for support of the football program.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Jake R. Cabell

To Whom It May Concern:

Thank you for taking the time to review my resume. I am also contacting you as a potential candidate for The Wisconsin University Athletic Performance Intern Position. As a Nutrition in Industry major and a Business minor at The Ohio State University, I am very interested in a position in this field.

My experience as a personal trainer at The Ohio State University and D1 Cincinnati as well as the knowledge and understanding acquired in my course work at Ohio State has given me a great prospective on performance training. I have learned the proper training techniques to attain optimal performance, to maintain a healthy lifestyle and also to manage health issuesâ€”knowledge that would transfer well to your athletic program. I am passionate about helping people become healthier. I also walk the talkâ€”Iâ€™m a Certified Personal Trainer working at OSUâ€™s Recreation Center and a member of the Triathlon Club.

In short, my desire to show people the immense benefits of exercise and my deep love for athletics make me a unique and excellent candidate for a position in your department. I have included my resume for your review and welcome the opportunity to speak with you to learn more about potential positions at The University of Wisconsin

December 5, 2012

Dear Hiring Manager:

I am submitting this letter in reference to the Head Football Coach position with your school. Enclosed is my resume for your review. Through my coaching achievements and job experience, I have become an efficient coach in the football arena that I would bring to your organization:

- 20 years of coaching experience from high school football to Professional football.

I have a personal goal to secure a challenging coaching position that allows me to contribute my extensive professional experience, positive attitude, and leadership abilities as well as build a highly respected football program within the mission of the university and its philosophy of intercollegiate athletics. I have been blessed with the opportunity as an athlete and later a coach to accumulated extensive experience and history. The experience has benefited me both, on and off of the field. In addition to strategizing, I plan to utilize tools such as: positive praise, nutrition, education, excellent communication and organizational skills, competent leadership, objectivity, determination, self-discipline and faith in order to collaboratively build a winning team. I have excellent organizational skills, with a high attention to details. I am dependable and trustworthy always meeting my deadlines. I consider my time-management skills, great personality and team-player spirit to be some of my greatest attributes. If I am given the opportunity, I believe that I would be a good fit for your organization.

Therefore, please review my resume in consideration for employment as Head Football Coach. Please feel free to contact me to further discuss the possible fit between your organization and myself. I can be reached at: [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]

Respectfully Submitted,

Bobby Finch Jr.

I am a very passionate coach with a strong desire to be on the University level. I am always looking for a way to improve on the situation or a program that I come in contact with. I am blessed with the vision to see how things can be improved. I designed a sports complex for my school (NCCU) that included a stadium connected to an arena with a tennis grand stand. I did the research and worked with graphic design company to complete the project. I submitted it to the Vice Chancellor, AD and Chancellors office. I was inspired to do this on my own as a student who saw the need. I am driven to observe the situation, and then come up with a solution to make the necessary improvements. I also have an eye for recruiting talented players. I have the ability to motivate young athletes to be successful on the field and in the classroom. I am looking for a great opportunity to do this. I have trained, worked with and coached several NFL and D-1 football players like Sydaet™Quan Thompson (Denver Broncos), Greg Little (Cleveland Browns) and Shaq Thompson (University of Washington). I also have great communication skills and interpersonal skills that will allow me to have positive impact on your program.

Thank you,

Bobby Finch Jr.

Dear Coach:

My interest in the position of Assistant Football Coach has prompted me to forward my resume for consideration.

I am a man of vision who has proven leading teams to achieve winning seasons. I refused to set limitations on what would be a satisfactory season. I like to set goals high. I never want to put a ceiling on what can be accomplished. I am committed to discipline on and off the field. The coaches I have worked with became impressed with my sincerity, openness, family values, and the casual and genuine way I carried myself. I feel I can generate an atmosphere of excitement and unity among the University of Wisconsin people.

Additionally, my background in recruitment and personal connection with local high school coaches give me step up in recruiting players in the area that others may lack. I have worked repeatedly with players who were recruited and signed to play at the collegiate level. I know the caliber of players University of Wisconsin is looking for.

During the past six years, my coaching experience has been concentrated primary on reversing the fortunes program on the field. I have achieved a number of milestones that showed positive progress. Your football program goals will align perfectly with my expertise and vision and I believe I am the candidate you are looking for. I am looking forward to be a part of your staff. One of my greatest strengths is motivating players boosting self-confidence and self-esteem.

Thanking you for your time and consideration

Respectfully,

To Whom It May Concern,

A high-performing organization is an essential part of your school's continued growth and success. When adding to your organization, professionals whose experience and record prove they will be successful are a must. My goal is to except any task asked of me, which will make our team better and complete it successfully. I want to learn from every coach and player in areas that I am lacking to make me a better coach.

Now, more than ever, it is important for coaches to educate players on the various options and doors that can be opened through participation in academics. It is also the job of a coach to deliver inspiration and motivation to teach young athletes the importance of effort and ethics as they pertain to athletics. I believe you will agree that my qualifications, highlighted in the enclosed resume, amply demonstrate that I have the drive, the skill, and the ability to contribute to your programs growth.

Specifically, I would bring to your program:

- Academic maintenance.
- Strength, conditioning and nutrition.
- Strong computer skills (breaking down film).
- Recruiting.
- Game plan preparation.
- Professional knowledge of football techniques, schematics, and training.

Throughout my career as an NFL player and as a coach, I have acquired the knowledge of knowing what works and what does not. I have always had a passion for coaching and I have exceptional leadership skills. It is not enough for a coach to simply show up and teach the game. Athletes need to be inspired, motivated, and encouraged. I am willing to put in the necessary hours needed to lead this team and this program to victories both on and off of the football field. I would like to extend my dedication to the sport of football to your school, both now, and in the years to come. I hope that we may meet to discuss the value I would add to your program.

Sincerely,
 Cory Hall

Cover Letter

To Whom It May Concern:

I am looking to advance my coaching career with your organization. Attached you will find a copy of my resume that represents my experience as a player of football and a coach of the game.

Coaching affords me the opportunity to be a part of the sport that I excel in. I will have the opportunity to pass on my knowledge and expertise to those athletes that wish to pursue a career as a professional athlete. In addition to my ability to identify with players, I bring an attitude of determination and perseverance.

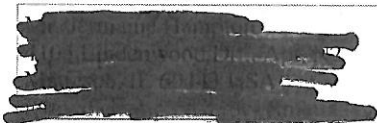

I left college early to pursue my dream of playing in the NFL, Strong Safety "Indianapolis Colts (2001 - 2003). Following an injury, I made the choice to follow my second dream of becoming a college graduate. I succeeded in May 2008 by obtaining my Bachelor of Science Degree in Liberal Arts from Northern Illinois University.

The experience of your coaching staff combined with the opportunity to be a part of your program will be an excellent environment for my football coaching career. Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Jermaine Hampton

To who it might concern:

I have extensive Executive level recruiting experience as part of a $1B professional staffing firm and currently with GE Capital's Retail Finance business unit.

I also played one year of NCAA Division III athletics (baseball) and began coaching High School Baseball at the age of 18. I spent 2yrs as the Head JV and Assistant Varsity Baseball Coach for my former High School coaching, teaching and mentoring student athletes on the game of baseball as well as how it relates to life and daily choices. My assistant coach during my first year is currently an Assistant Coach with the Phoenix Suns.

As I life-long Wisconsin resident and University of Wisconsin supporter, also hold a Bachelors degree from the school system, I am expressing my interest in the Head Coaching vacancy for the football program.

James Lusiak

Office of Athletics Human Resources:

I am interested in the position of Head Football Coach. I do not fit the mold that you would expect to find from an applicant for Head Football Coach, but please read on and I will outline my qualifications and experiences for this position. I am currently a football season ticket holder and have been attending football games at Camp Randall since I was a student at UW-Madison from 1995-1999. Not only am I a fan of the game of football, but I am also a student of the game. It is my desire to see that this program continues to be the elite program that it has become through the rich traditions and the work of Coach Alvarez to put the Badgers atop the Big Ten Conference.

In my time at UW-Madison I not only learned what it means to be a Badger, I earned a B.S. in Pharmacy. I have been a Pharmacist since 1999 and have been with my current employer, Walgreens, since 1991. I have worked at some of the busiest pharmacies in the country and have spent 7 out of the last 12 years being the Pharmacy Manager. Managing a busy pharmacy involves fulfilling the duties of a pharmacist at the same time that you are managing team of 9 to 11 people to complete multiple different tasks simultaneously within a specified timeframe. This is very similar to the game of football. I work with my team of assistant managers, technicians, and cashiers to schedule, plan strategies, put the right employees in the best positions according to their strengths, and do so within a fast-paced high-pressure environment to come together to achieve a specific goal.

I believe that my skill-set that I have built as a pharmacy manager in combination with my knowledge of college football makes me a viable, although admittedly unconventional, candidate for this position. I am constantly working to coach my employees to help them develop and put them in the position to effectively use their talents. I have to work within a specified budget and spend a majority of my time dealing with the public, providing excellent customer service. This directly relates to both recruiting, public relations, and being able to work cooperatively with diverse groups and administrators, faculty, staff and students. In the pharmacy we may have computer issues, illness, insurance issues, customer problems, etc. Every day I have to work to resolve these issues at the same time I still have my responsibilities to my other customers and staff to complete prescriptions on time.

I know that I do not have the coaching and head coaching experience with Division 1 that would be preferred for this position. I do not consider this lack of coaching experience to be a disadvantage and am not afraid of taking a challenge head on and tackling it. I was accepted into a very competitive and demanding Pharmacy program at UW-Madison while married, had two children, and worked full-time to provide for them all the while I was a full time student.

I appreciate your consideration and look forward to a written response to this application. This application may be made available to the public upon request.

Attn: Mr. Barry Alvarez

12-06-2012

Dear Mr. Alvarez:

Please accept my application for the position vacancy listing number 75429 for the University of Wisconsin Head Football Coach. I have included my resume and qualifications for this position along with 3 professional references.

I am a lifelong Wisconsin resident, UW alumni and huge badger fan. I trust your judgment in selecting a new head coach for this great university. In my opinion the University of Wisconsin is truly a world class institution.

I also know you are very busy at this time. At your convenience I would appreciate a letter from you acknowledging my application for the head coaching position. I will frame any letter you may send and hang it beneath my UW diploma along with numerous Badger mementos I have.

Again I wish you well in your search for a new head coach. Good luck in the Rose Bowl and in the future.

In closing I would sincerely like to offer you some advice that has served me well when I have an important decision to make. After you think you have made your decision. Go to your office and close the door. Sit at your desk and look at your surroundings for a full 10 seconds. Think about whatever comes to your mind for a full 30 seconds. Take a deep breath then make your final phone call.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Joe Mikolajczak".

Cover Letter

Dear Search Committee,

A Fortune 500 company must have proper leadership to succeed. A true leader must possess enthusiasm, courage, and an attitude that his followers can admire. A leader must create an atmosphere that emphasizes hard work, while embodying a level of success that can only be achieved through fortitude and diligence. A coach's role is to foster his player's abilities while stressing the importance of education and academic achievement.

Having played in the NCAA & professionally in the NFL, interning with the Buffalo Bills, owning and managing an athletic training facility, in addition to coaching at both the high school and collegiate levels has allowed me to develop the skill set and qualities needed to be on your sideline. My drive and intensity both on and off the field are unparalleled; I put my heart and soul into my daily preparation. I believe a strong leader must lead through example in all aspects of life, both on and off the field.

One of my qualities as a coach is my ability to forge strong relationships and trust with players and fellow coaches. As a Coach I must provide a presence that can be admired and respected. It is important that my players know that they can communicate with me openly and honestly on many levels. My goal is to develop a squadron that supports the University of Wisconsin-Madison football traditions and gathers fan support.

I look forward to the opportunity in exceeding your expectations of what you seek in a coach.

Sincerely,
Gabriel Northern

Dear Holly,

I want to see Barry if he is here and available. N.C.A.A. is very good when I am a fan. It is better when I am the fan, since 1969 for around 44 years now. It is best when I know you well at Division I and Big Ten Conference.

My Goal is to DISCOVER it, Plan is to DEVELOP Famous Wisconsin Football. Then, I retire with DEDICATE my time with you.

PROPORTION is important for proper arrangement or balance of parts for WISCONSIN FOOTBALL SUCCESS. I believe it can be achieved.

COMPREHENSIVE LEARNING occurs when they beat us, or we beat them. It's good for program and N.C.A.A.

PASSION happens when everyone works hard, yet so winning. It also occurs when they had more success for those events that we did not score more points.

RESPONSIBILITY is to us POINTS PLAY, OUTCOACH THEM AS MUCH AS WE can.

SPORTSMANSHIP AND CITIZENSHIP are important element at all times, before events, during events, and reflections.

Cover Letter

To Whom It May Concern:

Over the past 5 years I have been honing and developing my skills as a head football coach. Starting my career as a position coach on the high school level I have increased my knowledge, skill and philosophy. I am currently the assistant head coach at Calvert Hall College High School and I am currently looking to secure a position in coaching on the college level. In addition to coaching I have achieved a modicum of success establishing, growing and selling an investment advisory business. With the sale of this business I was very fortunate and blessed to begin to wholeheartedly pursue a career in coaching football which is one of my life's passions. My goal is to obtain a coaching position where I can further develop, educate, and learn from the young men and women I encounter through this great profession. My skills and background make me an exceptional candidate. I have skills in the following areas of recruiting, football operations, game planning, talent evaluation, coaching techniques, film study, football technology integration, hudl technology, practice planning, and strategic planning.

I have many transferrable skills that would make me a viable intern for the organization. I am a graduate of Johns Hopkins University in biomedical engineering with a concentration in electrical engineering. While there I played D-III football under Coach John Margraff. Upon graduating I worked as a product specialist for a sports medicine and implantable device company and from there I transitioned my career to financial services. In 2004 I started my own advisory company. I grew that business from $100k in managed assets to over $100 million assets under management at the time of the sale of my business. Through this experience, I have been able to develop and cultivate skills in business development, strategic planning, financial management, leadership, and coaching. All of these skills I believe are transferable and can be assets to your organization.

In addition to my background in business, I am personally mentored by Greg Blache, Burton Burns, Donald Davis and Larry Johnson who have shaped my football coaching style and technique. Many of the concepts I use have come from the influences of these men and others I could mention. I am a graduate of St. Augustine High School in New Orleans, LA a school with an extensive football pedigree and various coaches and players continue to influence the football landscape from this institution. In addition to this my networking ability has been and continues to be one of the driving forces to the success I have garnered and maintaining relationships is one of my core beliefs in growing a successful football programs.

I am willing to learn. I am a team player. I believe that it does not matter who gets the credit that as long as the team benefits you have a solid organization. I am flexible, hardworking and dedicated learner who is eager to be an asset to your organization if given the opportunity. I look forward to discussing an intern opportunity with you.

Sincerely,

Frank Richard

University of Wisconsin – Madison, Head Football Coach (PVL # 75429)

December 10, 2012

To whom it may concern,

I am applying for the Head Football Coach position at University of Wisconsin – Madison. I recently graduated from Tulane University in New Orleans with a BSM in Finance. I am currently employed at Epic as a Financial Analyst. I currently reside in Madison. Please also find my attached comprehensive resume.

I have a strong background in athletics that has provided me with the requisite experience for this position. I served as a captain at a successful football program at Miramonte High in Orinda, California playing both wide receiver and defensive back. I also have significant Division I athletics experience, serving as a practice player for Tulane Basketball. Working with the all-time winningest coach in the conference has left me with invaluable insights into coaching a successful team. I also found success in recruiting when I assisted in bringing in a highly ranked prospect to the school.

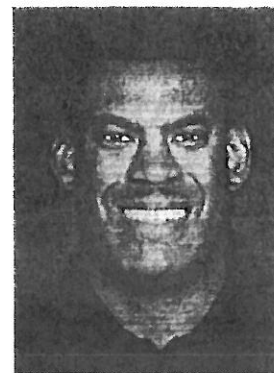

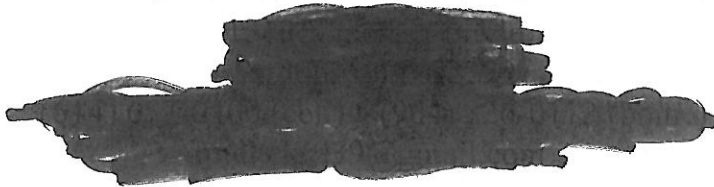

My business background is a key strength. My in-depth understanding of finance and business operations will allow me to efficiently manage athletics budgets. Related business experiences including public speaking will allow me to easily take command of the outward facing portion of this position.

My abilities and experiences make me an excellent candidate for the Head Football Coach position. I have additional insights and experiences beyond what I could fit into this cover letter so I am therefore requesting the opportunity to interview for this position. Please contact me anytime by phone or email. I am excited about the opportunity to represent the University of Wisconsin and look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Harrison A. Selwitz

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing you today regarding the current Head Football Coaching position opening with the University of Wisconsin. At your earliest convenience; I'd very much appreciate the opportunity to discuss the position with you. The description of the position fits many interests of mine, and I feel that with my skills and experience, I am a prime candidate for this position.

Now that I have competed and completed my college career, I have made sports a passion of mine and would like to pursue a career for a sports organization such as you. This is a great opportunity for me to advance my career, and to take myself to goals that I want to achieve.

I have been competing and participating in athletic events my entire life. I have also experienced and performed tasks necessary for accomplishing tasks necessary for this position. In my duration at Ripon College, I have participated in football for 4 years, and feel that this gives me a competitive edge that helps me stand-alone.

I have also developed interpersonal and coaching skills through my work with the Ripon College Lacrosse team, and my coaching of lacrosse and football for various high school teams. I believe this has given me great experience not only in coaching, but also in working with athletes and fans of all ages.

I'd love the opportunity to speak with you more regarding this position, and how I can help fulfill all the needs and responsibilities that this position entails. I can be reached at  or via email .

Thank you for your consideration; I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Trevor Wirth
